LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Alumni/ae, Families, and Friends,

The following contains the more than 5,700 names that make up the 2019 Bard College Report of Gifts, which includes gifts received from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019. These are the alumni/ae, families, faculty, staff, and friends of the College whose generosity in the last year made Bard possible and whose ongoing commitment secures Bard's future.

I hope everyone in the Report of Gifts is proud to see their name listed here. Your support goes to undergraduate scholarships, faculty resources, exceptional arts programming, and bringing the liberal arts to the underserved in the United States and around the world. Bard is sustained by donors like you.

Your gift inspires others to give. On behalf of myself and my family, I want to thank each of you for believing in the mission of this extraordinary college. I wish you and your family the best for the new year.

Cordially,
Leon Botstein

JOHN BARD SOCIETY

The John Bard society was established to recognize loyal alumni/ae, faculty, staff, and friends who have made provisions for Bard College—planned gifts—in their estate plans. Some include a bequest to Bard in their will, some contribute to Bard's pooled income fund, and some establish a charitable gift annuity with the college. Planned gifts have far-reaching effects that benefit today's Bard students as well as those of tomorrow.
